GAS STRUCK IN OIL DRILLING

Sure Signs Of Oil Said To Have Been Found By Crew At Work In Buck Creek Section

A big producing gas well was struck at a depth of 218 feet by the crew which is drilling for oil on the Albert Schuler farm in the Buck Creek section, in the southern section of the county, late last week. A great deal of interest has been aroused in all that section for the experts say that this is a splendid indication of oil close at hand. The rigging was moved southward 80 feet and another well has been started. The gas from the first well being piped and used for fuel in the drilling operations.

Deputy Sheriff Monroe Thompson of that section, was in town Monday, and told of the work which is being pushed rapidly by the Daniel Boone Oil Company, of Pittsburg, which has the drilling in charge. He said that when the first well was drilled, a strata of almost solid limestone was struck, which made work slow until it was pierced. The limestone proved to be 18 feet in thickness.

GOSHEN SCHOOL IMPROVED.

Mrs. Dollie McBee, the efficient teacher at Goshen school, reports that some much needed improvements have been made to the school house with the proceeds from the pie supper which was recently held there. The supper netted $54.83 and this was expended for the building of a porch across the front of the building, over both doors, the addition of seven new books to the school library and the purchase of shades for the seven windows of the schoolhouse. The Goshen school is one of the most progressive of the county public schools and is doing fine work under Mrs. McBee's management. The new books bought for the Goshen school library were: Baldwins' Fairy Stories and Fables; Otis' Hannah of Kentucky; Pratt's Legends of the Red Children; Dickens' Story of Little Nell; Hawke's Trail to the Woods; Haaren's Famous Men of Modern Times and Whitehead's Two Great Southerners.

Admission 25 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents.

NEW EAST END DIRECTOR

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Crab Orchard Banking Company Tuesday, all of the former directors were re-elected and Dr. J. A. Harmon, was added to the board. Dr. Harmon is a very popular and progressive physician of the East End, and will be a decided addition to the board of this rapidly growing and hustling financial institution, which plays such an important part in the commercial life of the East End.

STANLEY STOPS LYNCHING.

Gov. Stanley faced a large crowd at Murray, Monday and successfully pleaded with the people to permit the law to take its course in the case of the negro, Lube Martin, charged with the murder of Policeman Duiguid, and it was announced that the trial of the negro would be called February 5. The negro was taken from Paducah to the Hopkinsville jail for safekeeping. Gov. Stanley returned to Louisville.

CHARLEY GREEN'S FINE WORK

Friends here of Charley Green, formerly of Stanford, have recently received copies of the American Cloak and Suit Review, which tells of the rapid strides he has made in the big department store of LaSalle & Koch, of Toledo, O. This firm has just built an attractive new home, and after describing it, the paper says: "The buyer of all the women's and misses' ready-to-wear stocks—that is, the cloak, suit, skirt, dress, and fur departments—at LaSalle & Koch Co., are presided over by Charley Green. Mr. Green went to LaSalle & Koch, between five and six years ago, succeeding Charles E. Stock, who left the LaSalle & Koch Co. to go with J. N. Adams Co., Buffalo. With the natural development of the city and the development of the cloak and suit trade, Mr. Green, in the years that he has been in Toledo, has made wonderful progress, and it is considered that his department now does a volume of business far in excess of the amount transacted when Mr. Green assumed charge. Mr. Green's departments are essential quality departments. LaSalle & Koch cater to the best dressed women of Toledo and the surrounding country. Mr. Green is a frequent visitor to the market, making at least eight trips a year, and is considered one of the most far-sighted merchants in the cloak and suit trade that come to New York.

RESPECTED NEGRO DIES

Sam Carson, aged 45, a well known negro citizen of the Maywood section, died there Monday and was buried at Hall's Gap Wednesday. His funeral was conducted by Rev. Graham. Carson was one of the most respected colored citizens in the county.

Fourth Stock Dividend

Declared On State Bank Stock By First National Bank Tomorrow.

January 13th will be a lucky date for the stockholders of the State Bank & Trust Company, whose business is the National Bank of this city, has been winding up for the past year. Announcement was made today that another stock dividend will be made by the First National Bank tomorrow, Saturday, Jan. 13th. This will make the fourth dividend declared on this stock since the First National took charge, and will undoubtedly be pleasing to the large number who were interested in the late concern.

CHILDREN SHOW NERVE

The nerve and presence of mind of Marie Chancellor, aged 14, and Joe B. Chancellor, aged 12, children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chancellor, who live on the Crab Orchard pike east of Stanford, was probably all that prevented a very serious accident when the horse they were driving ran away last Tuesday afternoon. The children drive to town each morning to school. When they started home that afternoon, the animal bolted. He ran down Main street, narrowly missing several pedestrians, and other vehicles, but was finally stopped by the children on lower Main. When the rig with the child and the runaway dashed through town, it was seen that each child had a line, and they were tugging and sawing away at the brute's mouth with all the strength they possessed. The lad had started to drive, but when the horse bolted, he handed his sister one of the reins, realizing that their combined strength would probably accomplish more than either one single handed and alone. Both were highly complimented upon their nerve and bravery in handling the vicious animal, when they returned to town.

NEW MAXWELL AGENCY

O. L. Minks, of Danville, who operates the auto line between that city and this, this week received appointment as agent for the famous Maxwell automobile for the counties of Boyle, Lincoln and Casey. Mr. Minks drives a Maxwell, but has arranged for a new model 1917 demonstrator. He is a thoroughly posted automobile man in every way, is very popular and progressive and plans to advertise his machine extensively. He will undoubtedly make a splendid agent for this machine, which is already very popular in this part of the state.

Here, There, Everywhere

Henry Spalding died at Lebanon last week. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Spalding.

Judge Lincoln Wells is said to be a prospective candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff of Casey county.

The First National Bank building and hotel at London was sold Monday by Receiver John A. Best. The property was purchased by Abner Eversole for the sum of $17,235.

In a fight on Rockcastle river near Mizes in Laurel Monday, between Nick and Ed Barnes and Willie Adams, Nick Barnes was shot and instantly killed and Ed Barnes shot in the head and seriously injured. It seems the difficulty came up over division of some corn.

Irvine oil is now bringing $2.05 per barrel, the highest price ever paid for this grade. An interesting feature of the high price of oil is that it is encouraging operators who have productive wells to extend into the prospective territory, so that a very considerable part of the high prices obtained is going back into the development of the field.

A man by the name of Ponder, a bridge carpenter, while working in a tunnel near Livingston, Monday, was struck on the head by a piece of falling timber crushing his skull. He was brought to the London hospital and an operation was performed by Dr. Pennington in an effort to save the man's life but he died.

Girls! Draw A Moist Cloth Through Hair Double Its Beauty

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy, Wavy And Beautiful At Once

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That is the joy it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it. 4-1

Golden Wedding

Of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pittman Celebrated At Parksville

"The golden anniversary of a wedding which was solemnized in this county 50 years ago, was celebrated at the home of the bride and groom near Parksville.

Fifty years ago last Sunday Mr. Robert Madison Pittman and Miss Allie Jackson Middleton walked down the aisle in a little country church at Walnut Flat in Lincoln county, and the late lamented Eld. Jesse Walden, father of Eld. William P. Walden and Mr. Jesse Walden pronounced the ceremony that made husband and wife. It was last Sunday that this happy couple celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day at the Pittman home on the Junction City and Parksville road in the same house they ate their wedding dinner fifty years ago a house on the land which has been owned by the Pittmans since the settling of Kentucky. Mr. Pittman was born June 5th, 1843. Never strong physically for several weeks he was very seriously ill, he is improving now, we are delighted to state and is able to be up and go about the place. While weak physically his big brain is still active, he is the same great reader, retains what he reads and possibly no man in Central Kentucky is better posted on national state, county and on foreign affairs than Mr. Pittman. Mrs. Pittman was born near Crab Orchard, June 6, 1851. She is enjoying good health, is one of the happiest most popular and best women that lives. The Pittmans seldom entertain. When they do, it is with a lavish hand. The luncheon served last Sunday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock was an elaborate one, prepared in a way for which Kentucky women are noted. The decorations were pretty and appropriate. The reception was an informal affair. Everyone present was made to feel thrice welcome, so gracious were they who had charge of that feature of the celebration. Fifteen children came to bless the union of Mr. and Mrs. Pittman. Of this number, seven of them, Eliza, Irvine, Baine, Kit, Lulu, Proctor, Lulu Mae and Adie, have gone to their reward. Of the eight surviving children the following were present: Dr. H. M. Pittman, of Perryville; Mrs. Ben Boling, Misses Allie and Sallie Pittman, of Boyle county; Mrs. Clifton B. Sandidge, of Lincoln county; Robert Madison Pittman, Jr., of Los Angeles, California; Elder Samuel P. Pittman, of Hueyville, Ky., and Mrs. T. A. Howard, of Seelye, Cal were deprived of the pleasure of being present. With one or two exceptions only were invited. The following addition to the children mentioned came Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Newland and Mr. Howard Newland, of Stanford; Mrs. Julia Higgins of Somerset; Mrs. Elizabeth Coffey, Misses Jennie and Eva Coffey, Misses Bettie and Minnie Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Kimberlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kimberlin, C. M. Harlan, Mrs. Joseph W. McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. Alex A. Johnson, Mr. Henry Harlan, of Boyle county; Mrs. H. M. Pittman, of Perryville; Messrs Horace and Marion Pittman, Misses Lorraine and Thelma Pittman, of Perryville; Ben Boling, of Parksville; C. B. Sandidge, of Lincoln county; Col. G. D. McCollum, of Junction City; Mrs. Annie S. Harlan, Col. Jay W. Harlan, Miss Rhoda Harlan, Hon. C. Bagby, Mrs. Bagby, Col. C. R. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, of Danville, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Hocker, of Parksville. The gifts were numerous, pretty and useful. When the hour came to separate, those present left reluctantly, each one with the fond Mrs. Pittman would live to celebrate, expressing a hope that Mr. Pittman many more wedding anniversaries.

Heard About Town

W. B. Cloyd, of Yuma, Arizona, is in Lincoln county, visiting his mother, Mrs. Priscilla Brown at Moreland, and meeting other relatives and friends. Mr. Cloyd has been making his home in the far western state for the past 31 years. He is a prominent resident of his section, but will always have a mighty tender spot in his heart for his "old Kentucky home," he says.

Dainty little cards have been received here by friends, announcing the birth at Prestonsburg, of Walter Scott Harkins III, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Harkins. Both the mother and father are known here, the latter especially well, as before their marriage she was the attractive Miss Reba Baker, of Mt. Vernon, who was a frequent visitor in Stanford and very popular in central Kentucky social circles.

LOCALS BANKS IN FINE SHAPE

Both of the Stanford banks re-elected their old directors at stockholders' meetings Tuesday. Only one change has been made in the local bank directorates recently, Mr. J. Fox Dudderar having been added to the directorate at the First National Bank. Mr. Dudderar is one of the most substantial and progressive farmers of Lincoln county and at the same time, one of the most efficient and popular engineers on this division of the L. & N. railroad. He adds much to the strength of the board of this well known financial institution. Both of the local banks have declared their usual dividends and carried over surplus. It is doubtful if ever in the history of Stanford, any banking institutions were in better shape or showed better reports than do the two local banks at the present time.

Crab Orchard.

The comedy "Duncan Dubbs" which was presented here before Christmas by the teachers and pupils of the graded school was by request reproduced last Saturday night and almost everyone who attended the first exhibition were present eager to see it again. We have attended some fine plays but never in our life one more entertaining, keeping up a lively interest from the first act through the entire performance. Tom Hays Branaugh as the old deacon in looks, acts and voice was perfect and looked every year of sixty-five or seventy years. Benny Duke made a shrewd lawyer, acting his part fine. Montez Fish was the villain and his acting was perfect as it required much skill. Sam Perkins with wig and beard represented a corpulent auctioneer, and few would have recognized either looks or voice. Miss Ellen Moore, as a school m'am and as a bride could not have done better and both she and Montez Fish had most difficult tragic scenes to produce which they handled well. The life of the play, Miss Philpina Popover was admirably acted by Miss John Eva Hilton, who displayed her devotion to the deacon in the most laughable ways. Miss Philpina herself could not have done better. Patience Edwards as the richest girl in town certainly deserved credit, both in acting and appearance. Then Trixie full of mischief, getting others into trouble was Miss Mary Gray and her performance added merriment and joy to the play. Eva Giesl made a fine Swedish hired girl and Joe Tom Edmiston as "Deuteronomy, a Country Product" simply was perfect. We feel that too much cannot be said in regard to these school plays which have been given from time to time by the teachers and pupils of our school here and the proceeds have been used to add comfort and necessary articles to the school building. Neither the teachers nor the pupils use any of the money earned. A piano which was greatly needed and chairs and other expenses have been paid for in this way and instead of complaining the town should patronize and co-operate with them in these laudable attempts to help the school to a higher standard.

Mrs. Kittie Thompson and little daughter, Cora Lee went to Lebanon to visit her aunt, Mrs. R. S. Putnam and have Cora Lee's eyes examined.

Mr. Chris McClure, of Paint Lick, has been visiting Mr. John McClure and family this week.

Mr. Will Napier, who had his leg broken some time ago was able to be out on crutches Tuesday.

Miss Fannie King is sick at her home near here.

Mr. Andrew Dillon bought the store recently run by Mrs. Daisy Hunt and will continue business at the same stand.

Mrs. Hunt has accepted a position in Thos. Cherry's store and will be glad to see all her old patrons there.

Mr. James T. Chadwick is better and his many friends hope he will soon be out again.

Mrs. J. G. Carpenter, of Stanford, was here Tuesday to see her mother, Mrs. M. E. Fish, who has not been well for several days.

Mr. Robert Thompson has begun decided improvements on the home recently purchased of Buchanan heirs and it will soon be very much more comfortable and convenient.

The friends of Mrs. Ada King will be glad to hear she is much better.

Mr. George Holmes, Jr., has bought a nice pony cart which is a beauty.

Miss Byrd Perkins has accepted a position in her father's store for this year.

Mrs. Kate Magee has been in Corbin some time visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Browning.

Mrs. John McClure left Wednesday for Corbin and Williamsburg to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Nancy A. McClure is with her son and daughter in Paris.

Mr. Walter Napier is in Paris.

Mr. Harvey Foley has returned from Somerset.

"Uncle Dink" In Race

Popular and Veteran Democrat Announces for Jailer.

The Interior Journal is authorized today to announce Dink Farmer as a candidate for Jailer of Lincoln county, subject to the Democratic primary on Saturday, August 4, 1917. "Uncle Dink" as he is familiarly and affectionately known to his host of friends, needs no introduction to the Democrats of Lincoln county, whose battles he has been fighting for the past quarter of a century and more. He has only held one office, having served a term as Jailer four years ago, at which time he made a splendid record in office, and one to which his friends and admirers will always point with pride. "Uncle Dink" is popular in all sections of the county and his friends will undoubtedly go to work for him with zeal, now that he has formally announced his candidacy.

MULES SELL WELL

S. H. Baughman sold eight head of mules at auction at the Jones stock yards Monday, and several others were offered, all of which brought satisfactory prices. Sales were cried by Col. John B. ## HARRY CAMINITZ MARRIES

A South Carolina paper has the following concerning the wedding of Harry Camnitz, a former Hustonville boy, who is well known here, where he has many friends and relatives: A December marriage of much interest to local people was that of Miss Lula Perrin, of Bishopville, and Mr. Harry R. Camnitz, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. L. Leeters, pastor of the bride, and was witnessed by a few intimate friends. Mrs. Camnitz is the charming daughter of County Treasurer T. C. Perrin. She was formerly a student at Winthrop College and has been engaged in teaching in the past few years. Mr. Camnitz was the popular pilot of the local club in the Pee Dee league for the past season. He was just recently selected secretary of the Lee County Fair Association. Mr. and Mrs. Camnitz will make their home at Bishopville.

WEDS KENTUCKY BELLE

(From Taylorville, Ill.)

News comes of the approaching marriage of Harry M. Grantham, designer and tailor in Fred Koppeser's West Main street tailoring establishment, who was married Sunday morning to Miss Iva Bailey of Indianapolis at the Baptist parsonage by the Rev. J. H. Spindler. Mrs. E. M. Seale and Mr. M. B. Leach were witnesses to the ceremony. Mr. Grantham had a home prepared for his bride on North Cottage street and the newly weds moved into it immediately. Mr. Grantham's bride is a very attractive, charming and accomplished Kentucky girl and she has recently been employed in an Indianapolis department store as cashier. The groom met her two years ago when she was visiting in Terre Haute. The romance begun then ripened into its happy culmination yesterday. Mr. Grantham is well known in Taylorville and he is a skillful and valuable artisan as well as a designer of marked ability. The many friends of the groom gladly welcome his bride to this city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey of Lincoln county and also the sister of Mrs. Al Williams of Taylorville and the former Mrs. W. P. Lankford, who died two years at Stanford.
